FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

YWCA YORK HOSTS 61st ANNUAL YORK HALLOWEEN PARADE

They are now accepting entry registrations and sponsorship

York, PA, August 9, 2010- Planning for the 61st Annual York Halloween Parade is underway and YWCA York is now accepting entry registrations from those who would like to participate. This year, entrants are able to register online at YWCA York website, www.ywcayork.org, or they can download a form from the website and return it to YWCA York, 320 E. Market Street, York, PA 17403.

Sponsorship opportunities are also available for individuals or companies who want to advertise their business or interests, while supporting the YWCA York. The parade will be held on Sunday, October 31, 2010 starting at 2:00PM and draws tens of thousands of York County residents each year to the parade route along Market Street, from the York Fairgrounds to Lehman Street.

Volunteers are needed to serve as parade marshals and walk along the parade route. If you would like to volunteer or to learn more about sponsorship opportunities, please contact Bernadette Green at 717-845-2631 ext. 128, or visit the YWCA York online at www.ywcayork.org.

Founded in 1858 and headquartered in Washington, D.C., the YWCA is a women's membership movement whose mission is to eliminate racism and empower women. Strengthened by diversity, the YWCA draws together members who strive to create opportunities for women's growth, leadership and power to attain a common vision: peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all people. The YWCA represents approximately 2 million women, girls and their families in the United States and 25 million women worldwide. The YWCA has more than 300 associations throughout the United States. The World YWCA is at work in more than 100 other countries. For information about the YWCA or local YWCA associations, visit our website, www.ywca.org.
