FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DINE-OUT TO END DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

York, PA, February 26, 2010 — The School of Culinary Arts will host a series of Dine-Out events to benefit ACCESS-York, a program of YWCA York, on May 4, 5, and 6, 2010. The public is invited to take part in one of these incredible nights of cuisine prepared by the Executive Chef and students at the School of Culinary Arts. The cost is $35 per person to attend and includes everything except gratuity. Seating begins at 6:30 p.m. Reservations are required and payment to YWCA York must be made prior to the event.

Four courses will be available each night and guests have their choice of preset menu selections. Guests may choose to bring their own wine or beer to enjoy with dinner. Please call (717) 845-2631, ext. 111 for menu information or to make reservations. Space is limited, so guests are encouraged to make their reservations early. The School of Culinary Arts is located at 1063 North George Street in York and hosts Dine-Out events for ACCESS-York on a semi-annual basis.

ACCESS-York, a program of YWCA York, provides free services to all victims of domestic violence and their families in York County, including Hanover. Services include emergency shelter, a 24-hour hotline, referral and information services, support groups, legal advocacy, transitional housing, rural outreach and health care advocacy. Access also provides domestic violence prevention and intervention programs throughout York County including schools and the community at large.

Founded in 1858 and headquartered in Washington, D.C., the YWCA is a women's membership movement whose mission is to eliminate racism and empower women. Strengthened by diversity, the YWCA draws together members who strive to create opportunities for women's growth, leadership and power to attain a common vision: peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all people. The YWCA represents approximately 2 million women, girls and their families in the United States and 25 million women worldwide. The YWCA has more than 300 associations throughout the United States. The World YWCA is at work in more than 100 other countries. For information about the YWCA or local YWCA associations, visit our website, www.ywca.org.
