

YWCA YORK

SCHOOL AGE CHILD CARE!

Question: What is the YWCA York SACC All About?

Answer: kids, engagement, support, projects, friends, families, and fun adults!

engagement, creativity and children—we can't think of three things that fit better together.

We offer:

- Committed, caring staff
- Daily activities & investigations
 - Breakfast and snack
- Transportation to and from school
 - Homework assistance
 - Monthly family nights
- Outdoor and indoor play opportunities
 - Swimming

For kindergarten through 4th grade children

Come join the YWCA York Market St location school age childcare as we begin the 2010/2011 school year.

Children need structured, educational care that promotes positive development and meets families' need for safe affordable child care. The YWCA York offers before and after school, early dismissal, and full day care for children in grades kindergarten through 4th attending the York City School District. Currently the YWCA York Market St location services Davis Elementary, Devers Elementary, Goode Elementary, Jackson Elementary, and McKinley Elementary schools.
