FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SERTOMA INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT TO VISIT STILLWATERS

York, PA, May 10, 2010- Sertoma International President, Julie Hejtmanek, will be visiting the York and Hanover areas from Sertoma Headquarters in Kansas City, MO on May 13, 2010. During her stay, she will conduct a site visit at Still Waters, a program of YWCA York, which is a residential program for victims of domestic violence and their children, supported greatly by the Sertoma Club of Hanover. While at Stillwaters she will tour the building, meet with residents and staff and see first-hand the positive impact Sertoma Club of Hanover has on the program.

To learn more, please contact mhill@ywcayork.org, or visit the YWCA York online at www.ywcayork.org.

Julie Hejtmanek, President

Founded in 1858 and headquartered in Washington, D.C., the YWCA is a women's membership movement whose mission is to eliminate racism and empower women. Strengthened by diversity, the YWCA draws together members who strive to create opportunities for women's growth, leadership and power to attain a common vision: peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all people. The YWCA represents approximately 2 million women, girls and their families in the United States and 25 million women worldwide. The YWCA has more than 300 associations throughout the United States. The World YWCA is at work in more than 100 other countries. For information about the YWCA or local YWCA associations, visit our website, www.ywca.org.
