

York County Alliance Against Sexual Violence

Mission Statement

The York County Alliance Against Sexual Violence is a volunteer group of diverse individuals whose mission is to create awareness and initiate action to end sexual violence.

Vision Statement

The mission of the York County Alliance Against Sexual Violence is

- To raise our community's consciousness of sexual violence
- To initiate action against sexual violence
- To support and empower victims of sexual violence and their families and friends
- To work toward the prevention of sexual violence through education
- To advocate for the rights and fair and equitable treatment of victims of sexual violence through social change.

Membership Requirements

There are none, but anyone interested in attending meetings should contact the YWCA contact for meeting time and location.

Meeting Times

Quarterly at the United Way of York County, 800 East King Street, York, PA.

Committees

Education/Public Relations

Responsible for the planning and coordination of activities and trainings that increase the public awareness of issues related to sexual violence.

Legislative

Responsible for the monitoring of state and federal legislation on issues relating to sexual violence.

Membership/Development

Responsible for recruiting participants for the Alliance, as well as develop strategies for developing financial resources.

Health and Human Services

Provide trainings and information to members of the medical community, as well as human service providers.

Contact Person

Melissa Plotkin, Community Educator, 717-845-2631, mplotkin@ywcayork.org