FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ACCESS-YORK LAUNCHES RURAL OUTREACH PROGRAM

For Victims of Domestic Violence

York, PA, March 15, 2010 — A support group for victims and survivors of domestic violence will soon be coming to Southern York County. ACCESS-York, a Victim Services program of YWCA York, will be conducting the support group in an effort to reach victims who would otherwise not receive services due to isolation and transportation issues. The sessions are free and will be held every Wednesday evening from 6-7pm, beginning March 24, 2010.

For location or further information, contact Pam Hunt at 717-845-2631 ext.221 or 1-800-262-8444. Visit our website at www.ywcayork.org.

Founded in 1858 and headquartered in Washington, D.C., the YWCA is a women's membership movement whose mission is to eliminate racism and empower women. Strengthened by diversity, the YWCA draws together members who strive to create opportunities for women's growth, leadership and power to attain a common vision: peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all people. The YWCA represents approximately 2 million women, girls and their families in the United States and 25 million women worldwide. The YWCA has more than 300 associations throughout the United States. The World YWCA is at work in more than 100 other countries. For information about the YWCA or local YWCA associations, visit our website, www.ywca.org.
